

Bio:

Eng. Abdullah Alseflan | PMP, CEP

Core Qualifications mostly in the Oil, Gas and Petrochemical Business:

- Project Management Office Specialist
- Project Estimation and Controls
- Project Engineering
- Project Management Strategy

Summary of Professional Experience:

- Project Engineering and Controls with ConcoPhillips, Houston, TX
- PMO of Saudi Aramco
- Project Estimation and Controls
- Project Engineer, Saudi Aramco's Gas Program
- PMO Strategy Development and Benchmarking
- Projects Claims and Disputes Analyst
- Member of PMI's Global Executive Council

Education:

- B.S. in Mechanical Engineering from Virginia Tech, USA
- Project Management Professional (PMP) by PMI
- Certified Estimating Professional (CEP) by American Association of Cost Engineering

Technical Paper:

The Project Management Philosophy that any organization runs by is usually carefully studied, refined and fine-tuned according to global benchmarks and improvement findings, and is dependent on the projects portfolio that organization deals with. Saudi Aramco's project management approach has matured over the years with continuous improvement efforts commemorated with decades of experience with projects of all magnitudes and complexities.

The topic of choice represents Saudi Aramco's methodology in managing its projects. It outlines the processes, organizational structuring and integration mechanisms used to achieve projects success. Some iconic projects will be shared to showcase some of Saudi Aramco's proud achievements.